VisionTrust Team Member Financial Agreement Form

- Participants are responsible for raising 100% of funds required for the trip.
- Participants must adhere to financial deadlines. *Please note your team's Due Dates Form for those deadlines.
- Upon failure to meet the final financial deadline, participants will be dismissed from the mission trip without a refund of money submitted. Any money raised up to this point will be applied to current trip or other VisionTrust ministries as needed most. It is VisionTrust's desire that all participants are able to go. Please contact us if you are struggling to raise funds.
- Participants are responsible for all required COVID tests, passport fees, luggage fees, transportation to/from originating airport, seat upgrades on the airline, souvenirs, any recommended or required immunizations, support letters, and personal meals at the airports on travel days.
- Financial support raised and donations made for a mission trip belong to God and have been given to VisionTrust to accomplish the work set before them.
- If a participant is unable to travel on the mission trip to which he/she has been accepted, participant is responsible for and will reimburse VisionTrust for any fees incurred as a result of his/her cancellation. (i.e. purchased airline tickets, emergency medical insurance, etc.)
- If a participant is unable to travel on the mission trip to which he/she has been accepted, all monies donated to his/her trip cannot be refunded due to VisionTrust's nonprofit status.
- Any money raised that exceeds participant needs will be dispersed to other team members, ministry needs of the team, or used by VisionTrust for ministry needs.
- Participants who do not pass the background check will be immediately dismissed from the team and money already submitted for the participant will not be reimbursed. There are no exceptions.
- Participant agrees to return home at his/her own expense if team leadership determines that his/her behavior is/has been inappropriate. In this event, any money raised will not be refunded. *Please note Code of Honor on Application.
- If VisionTrust has to cancel a trip due to COVID, all finances will be held for the participant for a future trip.
- If a country changes their COVID requirements suddenly and the trip participant is no longer able to travel, their funds will be held for a future trip when/where they are eligible to travel.

I have read, agree to, and understand the above policies, rules, and terms.
